P Numb. 389

The Daily Courant.

Friday, July 16. 1703

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated July 21.

Vienna, July 7.

PRince Eugene of Savoy, and Count Gundacker of Staremberg, are very seduloufly employ'd in making a Reform in the Management of the Treasury and of the War. The former has already dispatch'd the Count de Schallemberg with a Sum of Money to Prince Lewis of Baden. A Report is current here, that General Gelschwind being commanded by the Emperor to repair hither to give an Account of his Management of Affairs in Tyrol, instead of obeying his Orders, (conscious of Guilt,) is retir'd into a Monastery, and that General Vaubonne is to move into Tyrol with the Body he commands, to wrest that Country out of the Hands of the Bavarian.

Inspruck, July 6. To day Captain Ehriman brought Advice, that General Lutzelburg had by Stratagem taken the Fortresses of Ehrenberg and Reitza; in which 40 heavy pieces of Cannon, 4 Mortars, 16000 Bushels of Oats, Bread and Meal, for half a Year for an Army of 30000 Men, were taken.

From the Hague Gazette, dated July 19.

They write from Lindau of the 10th instant, that the French and Bavarians have quitted their Enterprize on Landeg, a Pass in the Mountain of Arlerberg, where the Peasants knock'd 250 of them on the Head with Stones: That of the French the Count de Noyon a Major General, and Captain du Brants of the Regiment of Conde, were made Prisoners, and an Adjutant kill'd. And that of the Bavarians, the Count de Taufkirchen, Monsieur de la Tour, a Captain of Grenadiers, Monsieur de Carretto a Captain of the Regiment of Monasterol, 2 Lieutenants, and about 110 Soldiers, were made Prisoners. These Letters add, that Major Koppenhagen had oblig'd the Castle of Terenstein, in which were 36 Men, with their commanding Officer nam'd du Lac, and a Lieutenant, to yield on Discretion.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated July 19.

Hanover, July 13. The Elector of Bavaria has demanded of the Archbishop of Saltzburg, that he espouse his Party, receive Bavarian Garisons, and pay him 150000 Rixdollars Monthly, otherwise threatening his Country with Military Execution. Letters from Vienna inform us, that it having been resolv'd to send the Archduke Charles to Portugal, pursuant to the Treaty made with that Court by the Emperor and the Allies against France and Spain, that Prince had begun again to learn the Spanish Tongue; and that it was look'd upon as a thing observable, that the Person chosen to instruct him in that Language is not a Jesuit.

Lorrain, July 12. Letters from Paris tell us, That the Duke de Vendome had sent a new Project for attacking the Imperialists to the Court at Versailles; the Approbation of which he expects before he make any further Attempt against them. These Letters add, that Monsieur d'Estinqui, who was sent out with a great Detachment in quest of General Vaubonne, was return'd and could give no account of him: And that the Grand Prior was gone towards Final di Modena to put himself at the Head of a Detachment sent thitherward by the Prince de Vaudemont. They pretend to tell us likewise, that the Danish Troops in the Imperial Army have mutiny'd for their Arrears.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated July 21.

Lorrain, July 14. The Duke de Vendome, with 24 Squadrons of Horse, 36 Companies of Grenadiers, and 1300 Foot, having march'd from Castagnaro to Verona, to cover a Convoy which went from thence to the Army; mov'd on the 29th of June by the Way of Isola and Lascala to Nogara, and from thence to Mantua; whence he pass'd into the Modeneze by San Benedetto, to see whether it might be practicable to attack the Imperialists on that side. 'Tis said the Detachment he has order'd to march to join the Elector of Bavaria in Tyrol, is commanded by Monsieur de Bezons; and that the Elector will advance towards the Trentin to meet him.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated July 21.

Cologne, July 17. The Troops of the Circle of Westphalia have pass'd the Mein at Costheim, and are at present quarter'd in the Country of Darmstad; where they pay for Victuals for their Men and Oats for their Horses, but demand Grass gratis. They will proceed to Philipsburg and Buhl, from whence on their arrival some Troops will march to joyn Prince Lewis of Baden. The French demand of the District of Creutsnach 31390 Gulders for Forrage and Contribution; but 60 Grenadiers, 100 Foot, and 150 Horse of the Allies are dispos'd in the Town of that Name, to maintain it and the Country round it against the Enemy.

Liege, July 17. The French give out that they have a greater number of Forces in the Netherlands than the Allies; and especially outnumber them in Officers. 3 or 4 Persons, Men and Women, are put under Confinement here, being discover'd to hold a secret Intelligence with the Enemy, and to be engag'd in a Conspiracy to betray this Place to them; Whereupon our Governour has renew'd the Prohibition of all Correspondence with France and Spain.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated July 19.

Hamburg, July 13. Monsieur Bidal, Envoy of France, has taken leave of our Magistrates, and will set out tomorrow for France: But the Resident of Spain continues here still, not being able to procure Passports from the Imperial Court, otherwise than in Quality of the Duke of Anjou's Minister, which he will not accept.

Sluys, July 12. Some Dutch Men of War have for several days past appear'd before Ostend; and sent in 2 of their light Frigates, under the Cannon of the Place, to sound that Harbour: On the 9th, in in calm Weather, 6 French Galleys put out of that Port; whether with design to attack our Men of War and Frigates, we are yet to learn.

London, July 15. To day the Queen came to St. James's; where, 'tis said, Her Majesty will continue till Saturday.
